

Tour Opportunities at the TT Congress

Adeodata Czink, RP, five star tour guide with ToursbyLocals and a member of the Canadian TT group has offered to lead various tours to folks attending the Congress. She will have available a 16 passenger Mercedes Benz Sprinter 3500 from Anderson Travel and Tours. A 10-person minimum commitment is required to keep the prices this low. The fees quoted below are based on current exchange rate.

October 17: 8-hour Toronto tour. Start with St. Lawrence market in the old part of town, visit the Anglican Cathedral that Queen Elizabeth and family attends, compare Old City Hall with New City Hall, University of Toronto, trendy Yorkville, Casa Loma, Kensington market, Chinatown, CN Tower from the outside, end up with coffee at Balsac's in the Distillery District. Includes lunch and Balsac's.

$125 CAD, $95 US

October 21: 12-hour Niagara tour. The Hornblower boat ride is a must; afterwards we follow the scenic route to Niagara-on-the-Lake with lots of stops. Includes boat tour, lunch and ice wine tasting in historic Niagara-on-the-Lake.

$175 CAD, $133 US

October 22: McMichael Gallery and possibly lunch in Kleinburg with Adeodata's own car if you have a later flight. First three people plus luggage. Includes admission to the Group of Seven. Drop off at Toronto International Airport or the downtown Toronto Billy Bishop airport.

$60 CAD, $45 US.

Please call Adeodata at 416-971-9754 and leave a message, including which tours you are interested in reserving and include your contact email. Adeodata will get back in touch with you.